FINALES FANTASTIQUE Vol. I

(S.A.T.B., Accompanied)

Here's a way to add a festive lift to some of our great hymns of faith. At the end of the final stanza, before the "A-men" has a chance to begin, burst forth with one of the "tags" provided in this volume. The congregation will be surprised and exhilarated.

Instructions

1. Each hymn is listed by hymn tune name as well as the most common or standard text.
2. A blank is available to fill in the page number of the hymn from your hymnal.
3. Space has also been provided for you to write in alternate texts that are often used with these hymn tunes.
4. If the "tag" begins before the final measure of the hymn has concluded, then the final bar is provided.
5. If the "tag" begins independently, then the hymn's conclusion is omited.
6. Choir singers will need to have their hymnals in one hand and the "tag" in the other, ready to execute in a timely manner.
7. It is often wise to begin the "tag" without allowing for any slowing in the hymn's cadence.
8. It is recommended that the "tag" be sung at a slightly faster pace than the hymn, then slowing as the music dictates.
9. There may be other ways to use these "tags" such as introits and benedictions.
10. In whatever manner these "tags" are used, may they further glorify God.
