Jesse Beulke (b. 1994) is a conductor, composer, music director, and pianist from Minnesota. As a composer, Jesse's pieces have been finalists for contests around the United States, and featured at both state and national ACDA conventions. His music is published by Pavane Publishing, National Music Publishers, and Carl Fischer.

A lover of musical theatre, Jesse works as a conductor, collaborative pianist, and music director for both professional and college theatre productions. Most recently, he worked as the music director and the conductor/principal keyboardist for Mamma Mia for the Theatre Workshop of Nantucket in Nantucket, Massachusetts. Jesse has also been music director and conductor for shows including Assassins, Titanic: The Musical, and Ragtime. As a classical accompanist, Jesse enjoys ongoing collaborations with professional and student vocalists, instrumentalists, and ensembles of varying ages for recitals, concerts, and opera productions.

As a singer, Jesse currently sings with The Singers – Minnesota Choral Artists under the direction of Matthew Culloton. Previously, he served as the assistant conductor of Vox Nova Chorale and sang with the St. Paul based chamber ensemble Kantorei. Jesse holds a bachelor's degree in Vocal Music Education from Minnesota State University, Mankato where he studied composition and conducting with David Dickau. He is currently working toward a master's degree in Marriage and Family Therapy from Bethel University in St. Paul. Jesse lives in Lakeville, Minnesota with his wife, Jessica.
